This revision petition is filed challenging the order of arrest against the petitioner, who is the 3rd judgment debtor in a money decree. Though service is complete, none of the respondents has chosen to appear.

2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner.

3. It is submitted that an amount of Rs.2,500/- was paid pursuant to the interim order passed by this Court on 17/8/2001. Stay was extended from time to time.

4. In the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the hardship that is projected in the matter, there will be a direction that the interim stay of the order of arrest and detention will continue for a period of six months provided the petitioner pays the balance amount within the said period in equal monthly instalments. However, in case the petitioner commits default, it will be open to the decree holder to take necessary steps for realisation of the amount in accordance with law.

C.R.P. is disposed of as above.

P.R.RAMAN,
Judge.
